Ad eundem statum

Applicants who do not hold a first degree from a New Zealand university need to apply for admission ad eundem statum. Applications for admission ad eundem statum with graduate status from non- graduates must include work history as well as a study history. In these cases, the academic performance in the tertiary qualification, the length and location of subsequent work experience and supporting statement from referees and previous employers are key items of information which are considered by the Academic Administration Committee. In most cases, several years of work experience after obtaining the tertiary qualification is essential.

If this is applicable please attach a Curriculum Vitae.

ECE certificate

It would be preferable for International Students who have not successfully completed tertiary qualifications from one of the following countries, New Zealand, Australia, Canada, the United Kingdom, the United States of America, South Africa, Ireland and Germany, to supply an ECE certificate.

These can be obtained for a fee from 'Education Credential Evaluators, Inc.' who are based in the USA (www.ece.org). ECE assesses the qualifications completed and provides a certificate showing their comparability. A 'General' evaluation certificate is acceptable.

J Please name two people from whom a confidential report can be obtained.
