

BOHDAN WINIARSKI SCHOLARSHIP

IN INTERNATIONAL LAW 2011

The Lauterpacht Centre for International Law, University of Cambridge is pleased to announce the opening of a competition for two scholarships, funded by the Embassy of the Republic of Poland in London. The scholarships have been named after the Polish Judge and international lawyer, Bohdan Winiarski. The scholarships are primarily aimed at younger Polish scholars in the early years of their career and are intended to cover a research visit at the Lauterpacht Centre in 2011.

BOHDAN WINIARSKI SCHOLARSHIPS 2011

Each scholarship is worth £3000 (GBP) and is intended to cover the cost of bench fees, accommodation, maintenance and travel incurred during an 8-12 week research visit at the Lauterpacht Centre for International Law. Any additional costs incurred are the responsibility of the candidate. Scholarships must be used during the 2011 calendar year.

THE LAUTERPACHT CENTRE FOR INTERNATIONAL LAW

The Lauterpacht Centre for International Law is the scholarly home of international law at the University of Cambridge. The Centre, founded by Sir Elihu Lauterpacht in 1983, is one of the specialist law centres of the Faculty of Law and is the premier centre in the UK for international law research.

The Centre conducts a range of scholarly activities throughout the University term, including lectures by leading practitioners and academics on topical issues of international law. It also publishes a number of important texts and case reports and provides research facilities and accommodation for visiting fellows and scholars from around the world.

More information on the Lauterpacht Centre and its activities can be found on the Centre's website:

www.lcil.cam.ac.uk

REQUIREMENTS

Bohdan Winiarski Scholarship candidates must comply with the following:

- have Polish citizenship;
- be fluent in English;
- be graduates of a Polish university (candidates should already hold a degree, applications from students will not be accepted);
- be associated with a Polish university or another institution in Poland dealing with international law;
- specify a project on some aspect of international law on which they will work while resident at the Lauterpacht Centre. Preferably, the project should be published as a result of the visit;
- produce a report of their work in English at the end of the scholarship period.

HOW TO APPLY

Applications should consist of the following documents:

- the candidate's CV (curriculum vitae);
- a sufficiently detailed (2-4 page) description of the project they intend to work on whilst at the Centre;
- two letters of reference.

All documents should be provided in English, except for the letters of reference, which may be in Polish or English. The letters of reference should be sent by post, preferably directly by the referees. Both the application and references must be received by the deadline.

Applications should be sent to Dr Joanna Gomula by email at jg218@cam.ac.uk or by post to Dr Joanna Gomula, Lauterpacht Centre for International Law, 5 Cranmer Road, Cambridge CB3 9BL UK.

DEADLINE: 20 SEPTEMBER 2010

The deadline for applications and letters of reference is 20 September 2010. Receipt of applications will be acknowledged if sent by email but only successful candidates will be contacted.

Applications will be reviewed by a committee appointed by the Director of the Lauterpacht Centre. Successful candidates must use their scholarships in 2011.